A Determined Attack Made on the Anti-Renters.

Members of Parliament Arrested and Funds Seized.

Appropriately Celebrated at the Cathedral in Denver.

Irish Commoners Arrested.

DUBLIN, December 16.—John Dillon, member of parliament for East Mayo, Wm. O'Brien, editor of United Ireland, Matthew Harris, member of parliament for East Galway, and David Sheby, member of parliament for South Galway, were arrested to day in the town of Loughrea, County Galway, charged with conspiracy to defraud. The prisoners have been acting as trustees in conducting "the plan of campaign," and have been receiving from dissatisfied tenants the reduced rents refused by landlords or landlords agents at the time of making arrests. The police took away from Mr. Dillon eighty pounds which he had just received in trust from tenants. The four gentlemen were taken before a magistrate and remanded for a week.

An immense nationalist demonstration was held at Loughrea to-day. Father Cunningham presided and a number of other clergymen and Messrs. Dillon, O'Brien, Harris and Sheby were on the platform. A large contingent of Lord Clanricarde's tenants was present. Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien adressed the meeting and then opened nationalist rent offices. Hundreds of tenants came forward and paid their rents. Suddenly the police raided the offices. Inspector Davies seized the money, documents and books and arrested Dillon. It is alleged that Dillon was roughly treated by the inspector. The police proceeded upstairs and took possession of more money and documents. They then arrested Mr. O'Brien and afterwards Messrs. Harris and Sheby. The specific charge against them is that they were conspiring to induce tenants not to pay their lawful rents.

Bishop Machebœuf's Jubilee.

DENVER, December 16.—At 10 o'clock this morning forty-five Catholic clergy entered the crowded church of the Immaculate Conception to celebrate the announced jubilee on the fiftieth anniversary of Bishop Machebœuf's ascension to the priesthood. When the clergy entered the rear entrance of the building the choir, which was composed of fifty voices from all the Catholic churches in the city, and under direction of Rev. Father Bender of St. Elizabeth's, together with the opera house orchestra, opened with introductory music. The venerable silver-haired bishop officiated at mass. The beautiful and impressive "Missa Solemnelle" of Gounod having been selected. He was assisted by the Very Rev. Father Raverdy, assistant priest at the cathedral, Rev. Father Robinson, deacon; Rev. Father Golds, sub-deacon; Rev. Father Matz, first master of ceremonies; Rev. Father Phillips, second master of ceremonies and Father Corrigan and Malone, acolytes. Rev. Father O'Driscoll was censor bearer, and Rev. Father Morton, pelter. The sermon was delivered by Father Gerzney of Morrison college. At the conclusion of mass a sermon from the clergy was delivered, followed by the presentation of a purse of $500 to the bishop. After an address from the laity a similar present was made by them to the bishop. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the venerable bishop solemnly pronounced the benediction and in company with the officiating clergy retired to the bishop's residence, where a splendid collation was prepared for them. There were present priests from every portion of the state and several from New Mexico. From 7 to 11 this evening an informal reception was held at the parsonage, attended by nearly all members and friends of the church in the city.

The Mine Suit.

DENVER, December 15.—After the Durant-Emma case was called in the United States court this morning Judge Hallett overruled the motion of the defense to be allowed five additional witnesses to testify regarding the Wheeler affidavit, on the ground that the motion was made after the trial began. The following witnesses were examined, all of whom gave strong testimony for their side of the case: W. W. Morrison, Harry Stocker, Geo. W. Nyce, F. A. Thompson and Prof. A. F. Van Wagelin. All testified that there was no fissure vein on Aspen mountain and no apex existed on the Durant claim. Testimony for the defense will probably be concluded Saturday. The case will not be given to the jury, however, until about a week from to-morrow.

Pugilism in Denver.

DENVER, December 16.—In speaking of the proposed prize fight between Dempsey and Burke, to have taken place in this city next Thursday evening, and which has created great excitement in sporting circles, District Attorney Rhodes to-day said: "I am determined that the strong arm of the county peace preservers and moral teachers shall be outstretched to prevent the show taking place. I wish it announced that every one in any way connected with the crowd in question and participating in the proposed exhibit will be prosecuted to the bitter end and warn the public not to purchase tickets."

French Intrigues in Africa.

LONDON, December 16.—The Bombay Gazette says: The French are actively intriguing against the British in the Somali country on the African east coast, southeast of the Gulf of Aden. A party of Frenchmen, it says, recently hoisted their flag over Dongarita, which lies within territory under British protection. The English agent at Bulhar has gone with a force of twenty-five men to remove the flag. Two French gunboats have left Aden since the agent's departure, and it is presumed they have proceeded to Dongarita. The British gunboat Pegasus has followed the French vessels.

Marine Disasters.

BANGOR, December 16.—The schooner Redondo left here on the 11th with lumber for East Boston, the schooner Dialem November 13 with lumber for Wood's Holl, the schooner Annie N. on 11 with lumber for Cohasset. The Redondo is probably lost with all on board, as a vessel answering her description is reported to have been seen off Thatcher Island deserted. The other vessels named have not been heard from and are thought to be lost.

Wabash Receiver Appointed.

CHICAGO, December 16.—Judge Gresham, in the United States circuit court this afternoon, appointed Judge Thomas M. Cooley of Michigan as receiver of the Wabash railway in place of Solon Humphreys, removed by order of the court last week. Judge Cooley was formerly a member of the supreme bench of Michigan.

Ohio's Liquor Law.

COLUMBUS, December 16.—The supreme court this morning rendered a decision sustaining the constitutionality of the Dow liquor tax law in all its features, including the tax and lien provisions.

XLIX Congress.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—Among the bills introduced and referred was one by Van Wyck, proposing an amendment to the constitution relative to the election of United States senators.

Van Wyck called up his resolution offered yesterday calling on the secretary of war for information as to how the Missouri river commission apportioned the money appropriated in last river and harbor bill for improvement of the Missouri river. After remarks by Van Wyck the resolution was adopted.

Blair offered a resolution instructing the committee on finance to inquire into the propriety of reporting a bill providing rebate on all imported materials incorporated with domestic materials or converted into other articles and exported to foreign countries for sale, thereby providing for extension of the foreign trade without reducing the prices of American labor. Adopted.

Senator Plumb introduced a bill providing that no railroad or other company or corporation engaged in inter-state commerce shall have or keep an office for, or otherwise provide for, or permit the transfer upon the books of such corporation of any portion of the capital stock of the same at any place outside the state by or under the laws of which said corporation was incorporated and all transfers of stock of any such corporation at any part or place outside the limit of the state by which such corporation was incorporated shall be void.

The calendar was then taken up. The bill to permit owners of American vessels and their cargoes to sue the government for losses caused by collision with United States vessels arising from their mismanagement was advocated by Messrs. Evarts and Hoar, and opposed by Messrs. McMillan, George and Conger. Dolph supported it, but would have been better pleased if its principle had been extended further.

The bill was passed, the vote, on ordering to a third reading, being 24 to 17.

The bill granting a pension to Mrs. Barbara Fuchs, (the stepmother of a soldier), was opposed by Cockrell as establishing the principle, and was defended by Edmunds, Blair and Platt.

The bill was passed and a motion to reconsider was rejected; yeas 8, nays 30.

Mr. Van Wyck moved to make a special order for the second Tuesday in January the bill for the relief of settlers and purchasers of lands in Nebraska and Kansas adjoining the Denver & St. Joseph railroad. The motion was agreed to.

The senate then took up unfinished business of yesterday, being the bill to repeal the tenure of office act. Edmunds addressed the senate in opposition to the bill.

George made a constitutional and historical argument in favor of the bill.

Mr. Evarts addressed the senate, stating that he would vote for the bill and the grounds of its constitutionality would not cover his vote, but that the grounds of expediency would.

At the close of Evarts's speech the senate went into executive session and when the doors were reopened adjourned.

HOUSE.

On motion of Wise the senate bill was passed providing that Admirals Rowan and Worden may after forty years service be retired from active service on their own application with the highest pay of the grade to which they belong.

Dingley of Maine presented remonstrances against the Denver free ship bill from the following associations and firms: Boards of trade of Bath, Maine; Bridgeport, Conn.; Minneapolis, Minn.; and San Francisco, Cal.; the Pacific Coast Ship Owners' association; O'Brien, Thomaston, Maine; Carlton, Norwood & Co., Rockport, Maine; and Harlan and Hollingsworth company, Wilmington, Del. The remonstrances, which were appropriately referred, represent that the adoption of the free-ship policy would destroy the ship-building industry of the United States and make this country dependent on British yards for ships for commercial purposes and for defense in time of war.

The house then, in the morning hour, resumed, in committee of the whole, consideration of the senate bill for the allotment of lands in severalty to Indians. A number of amendments, recommended by the committee on Indian affairs, were adopted and the committee having risen, the bill was passed.

Barnes of Missouri called up the urgent deficiency bill for public printing, reported yesterday from the committee on appropriations. The bill was passed and the house went into committee of the whole, Hammond of Georgia in the chair, on the sundry civil bill.

Atkinson of Pennsylvania moved to increase from $150,000 to $200,000 the appropriation for outdoor relief of persons entitled to entrance into the soldiers' home. The amendment was rejected 101 to 117.

On a point of order raised by Stewart of Vermont the clause was stricken out which limits to $4,000 the compensation of persons holding the offices of both circuit and district court clerk.

On motion of Holman of Indiana, an amendment was adopted exempting United States commissioners in cities having 100,000 population from the provision limiting to $800 per annum fees and compensation of commissioners.

On motion of Breckenridge of Kentucky an amendment was adopted prohibiting payment of any of money appropriated to United States commissioners, marshals and clerks for any warrant issued or arrest made under internal revenue law unless the prosecution has been approved by the U. S. district attorney and collector of internal revenue for the district in which the prosecution occurs.

The committee then rose and reported the bill to the house and the previous question was ordered tabled.

The house then adjourned.

The Indian Lands Bill.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—The house this afternoon passed the bill relating to Indian lands. As amended the bill provides that in all cases where any tribe of Indians is located or any reservation created for its use either by treaty stipulation or by virtue of an act of congress or executive order, the secretary of the interior is authorized whenever in his opinion any reservation of such Indians is advantageous for agricultural and grazing purposes to cause said reservation to be surveyed or resurveyed if necessary, and to allot the lands in said reservation in severalty to Indians residing thereon, on their application, in quantities as follows: To each head of family one quarter of a section; each single person over 18 years of age one-eighth of a section; to each orphan child under 18 years of age one-eighth of a section; to each other person under 18 years one-sixteenth of a section: provided that in case there is not sufficient land in any of said reservations to allot lands to each individual of the classes above provided the lands in such reservation or reservations shall be allotted to each individual of each of said classes pro rata in accordance with the provisions of this act. The rights and privileges of citizens are conferred upon every Indian born within the territorial limit of the United States to whom allotments have been made and upon every Indian who has voluntarily taken up his residence and adopted the habits of civilized life. The provisions of the bill do not extend to territory occupied by the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Seminoles and Osages, Miamis and Peorias and Sacs and Foxes in Indian territory, nor to any of the reservations of the Seneca nation of New York Indians in the state of New York, nor to that strip of territory in the state of Nebraska adjoining the Sioux nation on the south; nor does the bill authorize the abolishment of any reservation until the consent of a majority of male members 21 years of age shall be first obtained.

Anticipating Payment.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—The secretary of the treasury has directed payment, without rebate, of interest due January 1, '87, on United States 4 per cent bonds of the loan of 1907 amounting to about $9,000,000, and also interest on bonds issued to the Pacific Railroad company, upon presentation of coupons, and interest checks will be paid at the treasury, Washington, or at any of the subtreasuries. Checks for registered interest will be mailed to bondholders as soon as prepared.

Treasurer Jordan said, this afternoon, in speaking of the situation in Wall street, that he had received information from there that the demand for money is excessive at high rates. The action of the department, however, in anticipating the January interest on 4 per cents was taken, he said, without reference to New York, being intended to meet the general needs of the country by distributing money to banks in all sections as well. While exchange in New York is at a discount, checks will be paid at other subtreasury points in preference.

Reducing Telegraph Rates.

DENVER, December 16.—The Western Union Telegraph company to-day issued its official proclamation making a reduction of 25 per cent on messages to points in the following states from Colorado: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia, West Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Dakota. Within this state the highest rate is reduced from 50 cents to 40 cents. This reduction affects the rates from Denver to the following prominent offices, besides many minor ones: Alamosa, Antonito, Aspen, Crested Butte, Del Norte, Delta, Durango, El Moro, Garland, Grand Junction, Gunnison, La Junta, Montrose, Ouray, Pitkin, Silverton, Trinidad, Walsenburg. The reduction dates from Monday, the 13th, and the telegraph company will refund the difference between the old and new tolls to applicants during the next week on messages sent or received by them on the 13th and 14th inst.

Situation in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, December 16, 10 45 a. m.—The opening of the stock market to-day was comparatively quiet. Nearly all brokers had buying orders, and quotations from London being above last night's close gave a firmer feeling. Leading operators are also said to have assured their friends they had taken steps to protect the stocks with which they are identified, and all have buying orders in the market. The presence on the street of T. A. E. Bateman, F. C. Hollins, Victor Newcomb and others, who were absent during the break, also helped to restore confidence. The largest crowd is in the loan corner of the exchange, and the demand for stocks indicates that a very large short interest has been created. London houses so far are doing nothing in the market.

WALL STREET, 11 a. m.—Advances at the opening this morning over last evening's closing quotations ranged up to 1¾ in Vanderbilts, while three or four were a shade lower and a few unchanged. [illegible] were lost to the first ten minutes, Lackawanna losing 2, Reading 1¾, St. Paul, Chicago, Southern, West Point and New England 1 each. The market then rallied and material gains were made under lead of Reading. Towards 11 o'clock grangers gave way again and the remainder followed, but at 12 o'clock the market was again firm, due to the opening bid for St. Paul, showing the 3 to 4 and the strong action of the market. Money is loaning at 6 [illegible] per cent.

WALL STREET, 1 p. m.—Rate is very little used by officers in the loan crowd, although some of the best houses on the street report that they can hardly get out what they want. Borrowing rates not yet broken in the stock exchange but loans made previously are 5 for cent per day and legal interest. "Shorts," however, are borrowing stocks and carrying them at rates ranging from 8 to 20 per cent per annum. The market itself is comparatively dull and both brokers and outside operators seem to be waiting for developments.

WALL STREET, 12 m.—The stock market after 11 o'clock was much less active and remained steady for some time, but St. Paul lost 1, Louisville and Nashville 2, Reading 1 and New England 1¼, the general market all toward fractional losses. The losses were for fractions only. A rally succeeded but for small fractions only, and prices soon gave way again, Western Union showing decided weakness. At noon the market was moderately active and weak.

NEW YORK, December 15, 2 15.—The stock market after 12 o'clock continued to decline but a short time when a rally was inaugurated which gained strength after 1 o'clock with most active trading as an accompaniment. Before 2 p. m. New England and Louisville & Nashville had gained 2¾ per cent each, Lackawanna 2, Rocking Valley and Jersey Central 1¾ each, Union Pacific 1¼, St. Paul 1¼, West Point 1¼, Western Union and Oregon Transcontinental ¾ per cent each and others fractional amounts. Sales exceeded were made in a few stocks from those prices, but still better figures were reached in many others, and at 2 15 p. m. the market is active and strong.

WALL STREET, 3 p. m.—The market since 2 15 has been very active and strong with New England, Reading, Lackawanna and Louisville and Nashville as special features, the advance in these stocks running up to over one per cent. The entire list participated in the improvement which continued strong at or near the best figures of the day.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—Trenholm, comptroller of the currency, was asked by an associated press reporter this afternoon what he thought of the situation in Wall street, so far as the banks are concerned. He said: "I learned nothing to lead me to think the banks are at all involved in the panic. I have received a telegram from the presidents of several banks, and they all concur in ascribing the present trouble to a collapse of stock operations. More experienced and conservative bankers had foreseen this and consequently were prepared for it. So far as my information goes none of the banks are implicated with any persons reported as embarrassed by the panic."

LONDON, 12 30 p. m.—The prevailing opinion in the stock market in regard to the fall in American securities is that the worst is over, and everybody rushed to buy to-day. The increase in the bank rate caused a slight reaction, but the market is now firm.

Gov. Pitkin Very Low.

DENVER, December 16.—A Pueblo special to the Republican says: ex-Governor Pitkin is not expected to live through the night.

A special to the News says: Governor F. W. Pitkin is very low to-night. Gangrene in the legs has set in. Dr. Hencroft of Denver is one of the physicians in attendance.

DENVER, December 16.—An Albuquerque, N. M., special to the associated press says: The bureau of irrigation at Santa Fe yesterday passed a strong resolution endorsing the project for irrigating the mesa lands of the Rio Grande valley in Bernalillo county.

The Knights Betrayed.

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y., December 16.—Great excitement has been created in the ranks of the Knights of Labor at Amsterdam by the publication in the Daily Democrat this afternoon of all the secrets of the order and the mode of initiation.

Welsh Rebellion.

CARDIFF, December 16.—Farmers in the north of Wales are resisting the collection of the church tithes. In one section of the country farmers expelled collecting bailiffs from their farms and escorted them out of the district. It is feared that a rebellion among Welshmen may lead to serious results.

Aroused Against Emigration.

NEW ORLEANS, December 16.—A special to the Picayune from Edwards, Miss., says: The exodus of negroes from this vicinity continues unabated. Every train carries off car loads of men, women and children, the victims of emigration agents, who make them believe that the bottom land section is a veritable paradise heaven. A mass meeting of the best citizens was held here to-day and resolutions adopted and circulated to be posted warning the emigration agents to desist from their efforts among the negroes or forthwith leave the community. The meeting appointed a committee whose duty it is to wait on in a becoming style all such agents who refuse or neglect to comply with our modest but earnest demands.

Killed by an Officer.

SALT LAKE, Utah, December 16.—Teddy at Parowan, Utah, Deputy Marshal Wm. Thompson shot and killed Edward Dalton, indicted for unlawful cohabitation in March, 1885. Dalton had been arrested and escaped. He frequently declared he would never be taken alive. Thompson and Deputy Orton saw him to-day in Parowan on horseback and called on him to surrender. Dalton turned his horse to run, when Thompson shot, intending to fire over him, but the ball took effect in Dalton's body. He died in about an hour. Thompson and Orton were arrested for murder by local officers and will be taken to Beaver to-morrow. There is a good deal of excitement over the affair.

Monopoly in Base Ball.

NEWARK, N. J., December 16.—The Newark Evening News to-day publishes an interview with George M. Ballard, last year's president of the Eastern Baseball League, in which he urges managers of clubs belonging to the minor leagues all over the country to call a convention to band themselves together and fight the National league and the American association by uniting in stringent rules for blacklisting and reserving players. Mr. Ballard believes that the minor leagues can break up the monopoly in base ball players.

Discount Rate Advanced.

LONDON, December 16.—The Bank of England has advanced its rate of discount from 4 to 5 per cent. The financial markets to-day are animated and distinctly bullish. Investors preponderate. It is reported that a heavy block of bullion has been ordered for shipment to the United States. Owing to the disorganization of the exchange there is but little arbitrage business doing. The feature to-day is the firmness of consols.

Some years ago our missionaries founded Roberts College in Turkey. The most prominent men in Bulgaria were educated there and an English correspondent says that American ideas prevail quite largely among the educated for this reason.

Colonel William Stapleton has retired from the managing editorship of the Denver News. This step was taken to give him more time to devote to his duties at the mint. The Republican states, however, that he will do some literary work. But he will be greatly missed from the list of active journalists. His writing was always strong and vigorous, and characterized by an independence of thinking that was refreshing.

The attempt in Ohio to bring Senator Sherman forward again as a presidential candidate attracts a good deal of attention. As matters now look he could not get the nomination if Blaine is a candidate. But he is likely to be the strongest candidate next to Blaine. If Blaine should for any reason not be a candidate, Senator Sherman would be the most likely to get the nomination. He would be in every way a strong candidate.

The action of the citizens of Mesa county in regard to the importation of sheep into the country is extraordinary. From the statement of facts in the address, sympathy is likely to go to the cattle men. But it is a pretty dangerous thing for any public meeting to practically decree how the public lands shall be used. To say that a sheep man going into the country will be met with a "hostile public sentiment" is likely to provoke the use of poison if not of a Winchester.

There has been a great deal of criticism of General Crook for his conduct of the late Indian war in Arizona. The report of the secretary of war just published shows much of this to be unjust. Before going the last time to Arizona General Crook had won the reputation of being the best Indian fighter in the army. The reputation was so deserved that there was no jealousy among army officers because of the position he held. His reputation was also very good among the Indians, who feared him more than any man in the army. His masterly campaign against Cochise and his band in Arizona in 1874 was still remembered by the Indians when he succeeded General Willcox to the command in Arizona a few years ago. But for the last year or two western papers have criticised him very severely, and have injured his reputation as a soldier. General Crook is a strong enough man to remain silent, knowing that time will vindicate him. The change in sentiment toward him is largely due to the fact that he honorably kept his word with the Indians. His conduct of the campaign has been approved by all army officers except in the matter of trusting too much to Indian scouts. He has been energetic and brave but could not perform the impossible. General Sheridan in his report a year ago well stated the difficulties of an Arizona campaign in the following:

The whole extent of territory in this country and Mexico which the hostiles roam and raid comprises about 50,000 square miles. It is a region of rough, broken and bold mountain ranges, and numerous spurs, with an occasional plain, little vegetation, and naturally watered only at a few points by springs and water-holes at great distances apart. Each range of mountains and its spurs furnish splendid points of lookout over the plains to the far-seeing and keen eyed Apache, and wonderfully add to the difficulties of pursuit, and as his nimble foot and natural instincts enable him to surmount the rugged and arid features of the country and travel in any direction, it is not strange that he often evades and escapes from his pursuers. He is a mountain of foot Indian, bred from childhood to climb the highest peaks or cross the driest plains, and accomplish journeys without other food than roots or berries and little or no water. When on the war-path, or one of his peculiar raids, he goes "light," wearing little or no clothing, carrying no radius and encumbering himself only with his gun and ammunition, and traveling over the roughest region on foot as much as sixty miles a day. It is only of recent years that the horse has become an auxiliary, but even now, when pressed, he kills and abandons him and flees on foot over almost impassable trails.

When a band becomes hostile they start suddenly and almost always in a southerly direction for Mexico, and having almost invariably a start of several hours in advance of any knowledge on the part of the troops troops stationed near their agency, attack and murder such isolated persons as they may meet on their route, and supply themselves with horses and plunder at ranches that have been opened up within recent years. Not pursuit is ordered from every direction, but to halt them long enough for a fight is most difficult. The moment they are attacked they disperse in as many different directions as there are individuals, to come again together at some previously-arranged point a hundred miles distant. The trail is then lost, and our troops with the aid of Indian trailers, endeavor to pick them up by cutting the main direction they have taken; but success in this does not often go beyond the capture of a few women and children.

The newspapers have used two facts to strengthen their attack on General Crook. The first is that he was transferred to another department as though he was not considered equal to the work, and the second is that General Miles succeeded in a few months in accomplishing what General Crook failed to do. The report of the secretary of war, submitted to Congress this month, amply vindicates General Crook. His transfer was at his own request. In the campaign that he was to begin last winter, General Sheridan and General Crook differed about the use of Indian scouts, and General Crook thought he should give way to some one who held the same views as the commander. Regarding the success that General Miles had, this is to be said: General Crook also received the surrender of the Indians conditionally. The condition was two years imprisonment in the east. The government rejected those conditions and the Indians went on the war-path again. The following is given in the report of the secretary of war regarding the surrender to General Miles:

The fact of the surrender was communicated to the president and the authorities in Washington on September 7, and from the information received on that date the surrender was supposed to be unconditional. To this dispatch the president replied that all the hostiles should be very safely kept as prisoners until they could be tried for their crimes or otherwise disposed of. The first information that the surrender was not unconditional reached the department on September 9 by telegraphic advices from General Miles, through his division commander, that the Indians surrendered with the understanding that they would be sent out of the country, and in pursuance of this plan General Miles had ordered them to be taken to Fort Marion. As this was in direct opposition to the president's orders, General Stanley was directed from the war department to stop these Indians at San Antonio, Tex., and hold them securely until further orders.

The terms and conditions attending this surrender were such that Geronimo and those of his band who had committed murders and acts of violence in Arizona and New Mexico could not properly be handed over to the civil authorities for punishment, as was intended by the president, and therefore, on the 19th day of October, orders were issued by direction of the president, that Geronimo and the fourteen hostile Apache adult Indians captured with him should be sent from San Antonio, Texas, under proper guard, to Fort Pickens, Florida, there to be kept in close custody until further orders.

From the above it does not appear that General Miles was more successful than General Crook. Both may have been to blame for accepting conditional surrender. But the only alternative was war and massacre. Neither could compel an unconditional surrender. Both accepted a choice of evils and not the most desirable thing.

PERSONAL.

A. Boozer is the name of the prohibition leader in the South Carolina legislature.

Warren Green, ex-consul to Kanagawa, says that the wife of Mikado is a charming woman, and a graduate of Vassar.

Mme. Christine Nilsson has received almost unprecedented social and official attention during her artistic tour through Holland and Belgium.

W. J. Arkell of the Judge has devised a puzzle scheme to raise funds for the building of the Grant monument. The greatest puzzle heretofore has been how to get money from the board of millionaire directors of the monument project.

Miss Anna Dickinson has for several months been watching at the bedside of her infirm 93 year mother, in West Pittston, Pa. Her pecuniary resources are said to be nearly exhausted, and it is announced that she will take to the lecture field again.

Mme. Patti is reported as so much broken up over the Mexican ticket swindle, and so apprehensive of her reception at the hands of the indignant Mexicans, that she has refused to go to Mexico. On the other hand, some people believe that the whole affair is an advertising scheme of her manager, and that the alleged bogus tickets will all be redeemed.

Miss Hosmer, a Cleveland artist, has just completed a portrait of ex-President Garfield, which is said to be a perfect likeness of the assassinated president, just as he appeared when he delivered his inaugural address from the front of the capitol. Mrs Garfield, when she saw the portrait, pronounced it the best likeness of her husband she has yet seen.

John E. Owens, the actor, sympathized with the south during the war, but was one of the first men in Baltimore to be drafted for service in the union army. He was appearing in Washington when a telegram notified him of this fact. His part that night was an old man's. Turning to the audience on the opening of the act following when he received the notice, he drew his coat tightly around him and got off the point: "There's a draft around here, but it ain't from the right side."

The Latest Fad in Osculation.

Boston Herald.

The little god of love will possibly laugh in his sleeve, if ever he wears one, to learn there is a new kiss. It is a ticklish subject to deal with, for every body supposes he or she understands the art of this expression of affection, and will feel aggrieved to be told there's something new about so old a chestnut. Nevertheless, society has been stirred up by the intelligence that it is now the proper caper to imprint a salute on the tip of the nose when friends desire to be particularly demonstrative. The courtly kiss upon the hand, the warmer osculation of the lips, have been thrown into social darkness by no less an arbiter than the Princess of Wales! It appears that this lovely specimen of royalty was observed kissing her sister-in-law, the Princess Waldemar, in this particular fashion, whether by accident or intention the observer fails to state, and immediately the idea caught on to the flattering crowd of courtiers. When two ladies meet or part now it won't be "My dear! (kiss on the right cheek) how glad I am to see you" (kiss for the left cheek)—but the gushing pair will just light on the tips of each other's noses, like two birds pecking at a lump of sugar. This fashionable kiss has its advantage, as will be seen at once. There can be no disturbance of "make up." No one understands that better than the pretty princess. The French kiss on the forehead, emblematic of chastity and deep devotion, is routed—foot, horse and dragoons—by this new kiss, which ought to be immensely popular, considering it is the latest London fad.

Northern Pacific Reducing.

CHICAGO, December 16.—General Passenger Agent Fee of the Northern Pacific railroad, who is here attending various meetings, stated to day that after January 1st the maximum rate for passengers on the Northern Pacific would be five cents per mile and current rates three cents. Heretofore rates in the same districts have been as high as 7½ and 8 cents.

Germany's [illegible] Increased.

BERLIN, December 16.—The commission of the reichstag, to which the government's military bill has been referred, to day rejected, by a vote of 16 to 12, a clause proposing to fix April next as the date to put into effect the contemplated increase in the German army. The commission also fixed the peace effective force at 150,000 men for three years.

The Convicted Boodler.

NEW YORK, December 16.—District Attorney Martine stated to day that McQuade will be brought before the bar of the general sessions court to-morrow morning, when Recorder Smith will impose sentence. Arrangements have already been made for his removal to Sing Sing on Monday morning.

INDUSTRY
—AND—
Perseverance Must Prosper.

MR. E. HELMER informs the public that he has just received from Washington a patent, invented by J. G. Lentz, which he is now in partnership in, upon an improved Stock Saddle, upon which the saddle seat and Jockey are one piece, which makes the saddle more durable, much safer and stronger than any other saddle made in Colorado. I would inform the public in regard to infringements and that there is no other house in Colorado where the patent Cantle Seat and Jockey Saddle can be purchased. None genuine unless stamped "E. Helmer, Maker, Pat. Nov. 9th, 1887." I have also received direct from the factory, the largest stock of whips in the city, of every description, cattle whips, bridal whips, black snake whips, carriage driving whips and all other articles too numerous to mention, which I offer at very low prices, from 10 to $15; also lashes from 14 inches to 14 feet from 10c to $2; whip stocks and blanks of all grades. Also a fine line of Robes, Blankets, Fancy Halters, Interfering Hobbs, Knee Boots, Shin Boots, Sponges and all other kind of horse goods if not in stock will be made to order. I also make a specialty of making to order the finest grade of light harness, either in nickel, rubber, silver or gold mountings, satisfaction guaranteed; also all kinds of heavy harness at the lowest possible prices. Also I have a full line of everything usually found in a first class harness and saddle store.

Thanking the public for their patronage the past year, I hope by doing first class work at fair prices to merit a larger share of patronage the coming year. Respectfully, &c.,

The New York Tribune

While THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE is the most expensive publication of its class in the United States, nevertheless its price is now fixed at $1 a year, the semi-weekly at $1; in both cases an extra copy with a club of 10.

The campaign just closed found the country in the trough of the political waves. The Republican managers have made the best struggle they could against a state of general apathy. In a few states they have been aided by the inspiring influence of a great leader, whose speeches have awakened almost the only enthusiasm anywhere shown. The result of the campaign is gratifying; its gains are an inspiration; the Democratic losses are a plain guide to the popular drift. From this time forward the country will feel the lift of the advancing wave of 1888, which, if we all do our duty, will sweep out from Washington the masqueraders now in possession, the foes of protection, equality and patriotic government. It is now the duty of all earnest and experienced workers to bend their energies toward united and hearty work for 1888. The party is to be consolidated, cheered and rallied. To this work THE TRIBUNE pledges its zealous efforts.

THE TRIBUNE offers for 1887 several excellent premiums including

"The Tribune Book of Open Air Sports." A work compiled by THE TRIBUNE, especially for the young men of the United States. It is a thorough sinkfount of the present status of Open-Air athletic amusements in America, with suggestions to beginners, the rules of every important game, the records of noted contests and the achievements of American Champions. The book will contain about 150 illustrations. Chapters are provided on Archery; Base-ball, with the record of wonderful playing and the Leagues and Association contests, and instructions how to curve a ball; Court Tennis, Lawn Tennis, Football, Cricket, Lacrosse, Rackets, Horsemanship, Cross Country Hunting, Yachting, with a discussion of Sloop and Cutter and instructions How to Design, Build and Sail a Boat; Rowing, Canoeing, Fencing, Trapping, Swimming, Hunting with Shot-gun and Rifle, Camping-out, Winter Sports, Bicycling, Amateur Photography and a few minor sports. Among the writers who have contributed are William Blaikie, Maurice Thompson, Captain Jacob A. Auger, Cavalry Instructor at West Point, David Kirby, Thomas Chapman, General George W. Wingate, Professor George Goldie, Director of Athletics of the New York Athletic Club, and a large number of private gentlemen throughout the country have furnished facts concerning the wild game and hunting sports of their several localities. No book of this character has ever been put into print in America. It is sufficiently elementary to be a "Boy's Own Book," and answer all the purposes of our manly youth, and yet will also meet the demands of adults. Will be ready for delivery December 1st. Octavo, 500 pages. Retail price, $2.50. Terms, postage paid: with Weekly, 1 year, $2.50; with Semi weekly, 1 year, $3.50; with Daily, $10.50. Only to be had in connection with yearly subscriptions to THE TRIBUNE.

Also "Blunt's Rifle Practice;" a book for every hunter and National Guardsman; a fine Waltham Watch; the low priced Waterbury Watch; the two Unabridged Dictionaries; Wood's Medicine, Hygiene and Surgery, Illustrated; Ridpath's History of the United States, Illustrated; and Young's Concordance of the Bible.

Sample copy, giving terms in full, sent free. Order by postal card.

NATURE'S REMEDY.

DISEASE CURED WITHOUT MEDICINE.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have secured the agency of the celebrated Dr. Clark Electro Magnetic Belt, patented October 26th 1886, and which has gained for itself the enviable reputation in Electric medicine, throughout such vast and radical improvements over all other belts, that its advantages over them can only be fairly set forth by comparison, and we invite a trial to the contrary, as proof. In short, that is THE Electric Belt of today, and contains a marked improvement in electricity. Its self treatment as today's fashionable cure for the ills of humanity. That the extraordinary claims made for it are recognized by the U. S. Government, in their recent patents to us, and arguments are already in our possession. This belt will be found to be the central column, which is the grand nerve centre of the body, and also gives a direct current to the stomach, liver, bowels, organs or any weak part or diseased part, thus permeating every part of the body, and will positively cure Nervous Debility, Pains in the Back, Hips or Limbs, Dizziness, Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, all Weaknesses of the Sexual Organs, Loss of Vitality, etc. Electric Suspensory for men free with every Belt.

We take it for granted that every buyer of an Electric Belt wants the BEST MADE, and is interested to the interest of authority to our claim and the famous belt before buying, and cents no more than the inferior articles, just as strong and more lasting currents as the indestructible. We warrant it to last for years and which family can we name that it has not been of more or less benefit to some member of the family? TO MEN suffering any nervous weakness we especially recommend it, and will be glad to give the highest private references as to what it has done and is doing. Effie Ellsler as Bessie Barton

The engagement of Miss Effie Ellsler in "Woman Against Woman" at the opera house to-morrow evening promises to be a great success. The New York Star in speaking of her says:

Effie Ellsler is among the few women on the stage who remain womanly. Either put the stage aside or place on Effie's head the cap and bells and crown on Effie's brow and we would rejoice at the death of the upstart who let her step her foot in the footlights and show her ankles. As Bessie Barton, the heroine in "Woman Against Woman" which will be played at the Bijou next week, she will dig up all the emotion and sentiment in your nature. Only it ever so deeply. As an exponent of the gentle and affective and sympathetic among the practical and aggressive. The story of Woman Against Woman is simple in detail and strong in action, appealing to all classes alike. It is a tale of life without a single unnatural incident, overcrowding in dramatic action or dazzling in high life, or rise to fall of curtain. Effie Ellsler in one part plays like a great many of the present day. Pretty, straight-strong and well-taken. Miss Ellsler is supported by Mr. Frank Weston and a company of excellent merit which adds very materially to the enjoyment of an audience and goes far towards making the play one of unusual interest. The public should not miss this opportunity of witnessing Miss Ellsler's charming impersonation of Bessie Barton, a creation which bids fair to excel her great Hazel Kirke.

Base Ball Blues

New York, December 16.—Base ball men of this city were thrown into a state of violent excitement to-day when it was announced that the St. Louis Browns, champions of the world, had been challenged by the New York Giants to play a series of games for a stake of ten thousand dollars, best four out of seven. Jim B. Day, president of the Giants, walked into the Fifth Avenue hotel this morning and meeting Chris Von der Ahe, presiding of the Browns, said to him excitedly, "I understand you and Mr. Von der Ahe that you say the New York Giants are a third class club." Von der Ahe replied that it was third in the games for the championship this year. "Well, I will challenge you to play for $10,000 next spring," cried Day, still more excitedly and shaking a handful of bills in the air. "All right," said Von der Ahe, "and I will play you with seven men with your manager, Jim Mutrie, for umpire." A forfeit of $450 a side was placed in the hands of Manager Decker of the Baltimore club, and the match consummated. Three of the games will be played on the polo grounds and three in St. Louis. If it should be necessary to play a seventh it will be played on neutral grounds.

A Mining Experience

CHICAGO, December 16.—Edwin B. Palmer has brought suit against Jas. A. Haskins to recover $4,10,000 of shares in the Atlas Mining Co. which he claims defendant improperly obtained from him. In his bill plaintiff alleges that he entered into an agreement with Haskins to furnish him with $50,000 to work four copper mines of great value which he owned in Red Rock, Pima county, Arizona, on condition that Haskins would give him a half interest in the concern. This was represented by nearly $500,000 in shares, but defendant, it is charged, turned over but $150,000 worth, dividing up the remainder with other parties with whom he had been carrying on negotiations without plaintiff's knowledge. An injunction restraining Haskins from assigning or disposing of the property was issued by Judge Seeley.

The Markets

NEW YORK, December 16.—Prime paper 4 to 5; sterling exchange dull and steady, 4 80 for 60 day bill, 4 83½ for demand; money on call was stringent, ranging from 4 per cent per annum to 1 per cent per diem, closing at 4 to 6 asked; governments dull and heavy. There was a marked change in the appearance of the stock market from that of yesterday, the extreme activity disappearing and the wild desire to sell giving way to at least an appearance of renewed confidence which increased as the day advanced. The last hour saw the market increase in business done as well as a more decided upward movement. The market closed strong at about the best figures reached.

Winchester has been heavily interested in southern railroads and in Indian and other lands. One of the causes of the suspension was the inability of Morris Ilsley of Cleveland, Ohio, to meet their obligations. Winchester is liable on their paper to a very large amount.

MINING NOTES.

Items of Mining Interest Gathered from Our Exchanges

THE SMALL HOLE MINE.

A tour through the workings of the Small Hope mine produces a most favorable impression on the visitor. The workings, as near as the miners can judge from a cursory inspection, are more in slight flow as they did eight months ago. During April the mine was inspected quite thoroughly, when an estimate on the mineral disclosed to view indicated nearly a million dollars in sight. While some of the ore included must estimate has since been removed, great additional recoveries have been added to the property, and its prospects and prospects are now as great as at any time in the past. Since the estimate of last spring the mine has produced and sold about three quarters of a million dollars worth of ore resulting in a net profit above all expenses of $344,000. The figures show us that we greatly underrated the ore in sight at the time and that $1,000,000 would probably have been nearer than $550,000, the figures disclosed the day after the visit. It is with reluctance that this admission is made, as errors in underestimates are as much to be deplored as if they were on the other side, and also because the writer has gained the reputation of being over-cautious and unwilling to admit the true wealth of many Leadville mines. At the present time we believe the mine shows, basing the opinion on a hurried trip through the property as much ore available as eight months ago with almost as great possibilities as then. This conclusion of course, applies only to the main workings of the property, and does not cover the possibilities of the Blaine or Emmet shafts, which their future is dating workings.

The large blocks of reserves about the Keene and Carey shafts, standing now for over twelve months past, are nearly all still intact, and with the exception of two slopes, one to the northwest of the Keene shaft and another southwest of the Cary shaft, little impression has been made on the ore bodies in the mine. The clearing up of the old slopes worked out by the previous management has for many months more than paid the working expenses of the property, and has more recently led to the opening of some very rich ore in large quantities. Developments over the old slopes to the northwest of the Kerens shaft have also surprised the superintendent. It was evidently this portion of the mine that was subject to the prey of ore thieves, for a streak a foot wide is here disclosed next to the porphyry, that will run 500 to 5000 ounces, being nearly pure horn silver. The Blaine shaft, down 250 feet, contains a level south which will soon connect with the slopes north of the Cary, when additional bodies of chloride ore now under water will be available.

The developments from the Result shaft are proving up magnificently, considering the unpropitious opening up of this portion of the mine. Several feet of good ore are now disclosed on the east side line of the Denver City mine to the Result lode.

The sinking of the Emmet shaft progresses satisfactorily. The shaft is down 560 feet.

The operations of the property during October showed a production of 2051 tons, averaging 73 ounces in silver to the ton, representing 75 ounces in silver to the ton, representing charges $105,493. The expenses of the mine during the month amounted to $19,892, leaving a net profit of $86,601. The expenses of the mine included about $7,000 expended in sinking the deep Emmet shaft, and extending drifts from the Blaine shaft, and extending drifts from the Result shaft. The Blaine workings will form a body of ore in the extreme north of the Small Hope. Lately, a vein has been discovered by the Denver City and Commercial mining and the Result East cross cut adjoining.

The property employs at the present time 150 men, and the work is being carried on in a systematic way under the direction of Mr. S. W. Mudge, the able and efficient assistant Mr. S. W. Mudge—the able Director.

He was promptly applied to for particulars concerning the arrangement by which the trains of the Santa Fe road to Denver are to be run over his road, as was stated in the Topeka Commonwealth, which arrived in this city last Saturday. Mr. Grover, much to the surprise and disgust of the questioners, was found to know nothing whatever of any such arrangement. All he knew for certain was that the Gulf road has not been to the Santa Fe, and that traffic agreement of the Santa Fe concerning the third rail of the Denver and Rio Grande expires the 1st of January. Whether the Santa Fe is expecting to renew its lease, or to make other arrangements, he could not tell.
